"The SG Consulting Group was a fantastic facilitator for our conference. I would recommend her to any institution or organization. Our students enjoyed the seminar and took a way a ton of information. Everyone is fired up and motivated to tackle the spring semester."

—Claire Y. Korschinowski, M.Ed.
Student Activities Coordinator

Western Nevada Community College

"You gave us your best—and it was excellent. The students were buzzing at breakfast Sunday and all the way home. They were still buzzing today. It is never too late to get started doing the right things, and because of you, they are on their way."

—Ken Bedini

Director, Student Center & Activities
Eastern Connecticut State University

"It was a pleasure and an honor to have you as SG's guest at Ave Maria University. I think there was an unanimously positive response to the conference among all present, and I believe that you have given us all an incredible array of tools with which to make AMU an institution that will one day be recognized as a university with a great SG. We will certainly move forward with a greater sense of purpose and a renewal of our mission as spiritual, intellectual, and moral standard-bearers for our fellow students."

—Joreen R. Belocura
